

Walsh Anderson Products

The Student Code of Conduct addresses tricky discipline situations while giving you maximum flexibility to make decisions that are right for your district.

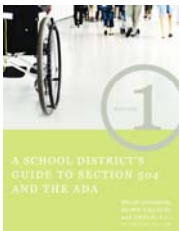

With checklists and sample correspondence, the Discipline Guide for DAEP & Expulsion assists campus administrators by simplifying the discipline process and improving consistency in how discipline is handled district-wide.

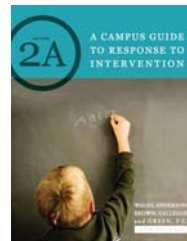

Based on existing court decisions and our own practical experience, the Student Dress Code provides clear guidance on the acceptable standards for dress and grooming.

The Walsh Anderson Student Activities Guide is a collection of seven frequently-used forms typically needed for student activities and trips.

A School District's Guide to Section 504 and the ADA is designed to identify the major issues educators may encounter in connection with Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

A Campus Guide to Response to Intervention will provide your campus principals and student support teams with a step-by-step guide to implement RtI and help you develop an RtI program.

The clear standards in the Extracurricular Code of Conduct will help students understand your expectations while giving coaches and sponsors the tools they need to address problems when they arise.

Walsh Anderson's Tax Ratification Elections: The Roles and Responsibilities of Board Members & Employees covers everything from Political Action Committees and campaigning restrictions to recounts.

School District Bond Elections: The Roles and Responsibilities of Board Members and Employees is designed to help school districts avoid common pitfalls which could derail the bond election.
