School District Bond Elections: The Roles and Responsibilities of Board Members and Employees

Making the significant decision to order a bond election is only the first step of the process. Since the final decision rests with the voters, it is vital to ensure that the bond election runs smoothly. Walsh Anderson has developed a concise, practical reference guide to assist board members and employees in understanding their respective roles and responsibilities in the bond election process.

Tax Ratification Elections: The Roles and Responsibilities of Board Members and Employees

Designed to help school districts avoid common pitfalls which could derail a Tax Ratification election, this helpful reference tool covers everything from Political Action Committees and campaigning restrictions to recounts. It provides practical information in a question and answer format using both hypothetical and actual fact situations which often arise in such elections.
